1.2 The Leased Property is a five-storey building consisting of six (6) rooms, one (1) kitchen, six (6) restrooms, and six (6) air-conditioners. The Leased Property is newly constructed, fully furnished in new condition, and has never been used prior to the commencement of this Contract.

1.3 The lease under this Contract shall include the Lessee's right to use all areas, access ways (entrances and exits), and parking areas within the boundary of the Leased Property, for not more than …… motor vehicles.

1.4 As of the commencement date of this Contract, the Leased Property is equipped with the following utility meters:

(a) Electricity Meter No. …… (Initial reading …… units)

(b) Water Meter No. …… (Initial reading …… units)

1.5 The list of furniture, equipment, and other property in the Leased Property is set forth in the Appendix attached hereto, which forms an integral part of this Contract.

Clause 2 Purpose of the Lease[1]

The Lessee shall use the Leased Property solely for the purpose of operating a business consulting office, and shall not use the Leased Property for any other purpose, nor for any purpose contrary to law, public order or good morals, without the prior written consent of the Lessor.

Should the Lessee use the Leased Property contrary to this Clause, the Lessor may notify the Lessee to comply herewith, and if the Lessee fails to comply, the Lessor may terminate this Contract.

Clause 3 Term of the Lease

3.1 This Contract shall have a term of three (3) years, commencing from 1 August 2026 and expiring on 31 July 2029.

3.2 Should the Parties agree to renew or extend the lease, such renewal or extension shall be made in writing. Where the period of such renewal or extension, taken together with the term stated in Clause 3.1, exceeds three (3) years, the renewal or extension shall in addition be registered with the competent official; otherwise it shall be enforceable for three (3) years only. In no case shall the total duration of this lease, including any renewal or extension, exceed thirty (30) years.

3.3 Upon expiration of the term of this Contract, the Lessee shall immediately vacate and deliver the Leased Property to the Lessor in accordance with Clause 19.

3.4 The Parties expressly agree that the Lessor does not consent to, and hereby objects to in advance, any continued possession or use of the Leased Property by the Lessee after the expiration or termination of this Contract. Any continued possession by the Lessee without the Lessor's prior written consent shall constitute unauthorized possession and use of the Leased Property and shall not, by itself, constitute the Lessor's consent to a renewal or extension of this Contract. Any money received by the Lessor after such expiration or termination shall, unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing, be treated solely as payment for unauthorized use and occupation and shall not constitute a waiver of the Lessor's rights or an agreement to renew or extend this Contract. In such case the Lessee shall pay to the Lessor compensation at the rate of twice the daily rent, calculated from the monthly rent stated in Clause 5.1, for each day of continued possession. The Lessor reserves all rights to require the Lessee to vacate the Leased Property and to claim any rent, compensation, damages, costs, and other amounts permitted by law.

Clause 4 Delivery and Condition of the Leased Property

4.1 The Lessor shall deliver the Leased Property to the Lessee in a good state of repair on the date of signing this Contract.

4.2 The Parties have jointly inspected the Leased Property and the property listed in the Appendix. The Appendix, signed by both Parties, constitutes the written description of the condition of the Leased Property as at the date of delivery.

4.3 The Lessor shall be liable for any defect of the Leased Property existing before or at the time of delivery which impairs its value or its fitness for the purpose of this Contract. Should the Leased Property be delivered in a condition not suitable for the purpose for which it is leased, the Lessee may terminate this Contract. In the case of any other defect which can be remedied by the Lessor, the Lessee shall first notify the Lessor in writing to make it good, and should the Lessor fail to do so within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice, the Lessee may terminate this Contract, provided that the defect is serious enough to justify this course.

Clause 5 Rent and Payment

5.1 The rent for the Leased Property shall be Two Hundred Thousand Baht (200,000 THB) per month.

5.2 The Lessee shall pay the monthly rent to the Lessor in advance for each calendar month, within the sixth (6th) day of that month, throughout the term of this Contract. Should the sixth (6th) day of any month fall on a public holiday, the rent shall be paid on the next following business day.

5.3 Payment shall be made in cash or by transfer to the bank account designated in writing by the Lessor. The date on which the funds are credited to the Lessor’s account shall be deemed the date of payment. The Lessor shall issue a receipt to the Lessee for every payment received.

5.4 Should the Lessee fail to pay the rent within the period specified in Clause 5.2, the Lessee shall be liable to pay default interest at the rate of fifteen percent (15%) per annum on the outstanding amount from the due date until the date of actual payment.

Clause 6 Security Deposit

6.1 On the date of signing this Contract, the Lessee shall place with the Lessor a security deposit equal to three (3) months' rent, being Six Hundred Thousand Baht (600,000 THB) (hereinafter referred to as the "Security Deposit").

6.2 The Security Deposit shall be held by the Lessor as security for the due performance by the Lessee of all obligations under this Contract. The Lessor may deduct from the Security Deposit any outstanding rent, unpaid utility charges, taxes, damages, or any other amount for which the Lessee is liable under this Contract.

6.3 Where the Lessor has made any deduction under Clause 6.2, the Lessee shall replenish the Security Deposit to its full amount within fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of written notice from the Lessor. Failure to do so shall be deemed a material breach of this Contract.

6.4 The Security Deposit shall be refunded to the Lessee, without interest, within thirty (30) days after the expiration or termination of this Contract, provided that the Lessee has fully performed his obligations hereunder and has delivered up possession of the Leased Property in the condition required by Clause 19.

Clause 7 Taxes

7.1 The Lessee shall bear all land and building tax, signboard tax (if any), and any other tax, duty, fee or governmental levy arising from or related to the Leased Property or the use thereof throughout the term of this Contract, excluding any tax imposed by law upon the income of the Lessor.

7.2 Where any such tax is by law assessed upon and payable by the Lessor as owner of the Leased Property, the Lessor shall make payment to the competent authority and the Lessee shall reimburse the Lessor in full within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of written notice together with evidence of assessment or payment.

7.3 Any tax imposed by law directly upon the Lessee, including any tax on the business operated by the Lessee at the Leased Property, shall be paid by the Lessee within the time prescribed by the relevant authorities.

Clause 8 Utilities and Facility Charges

The Lessee shall be liable for the payment of all charges for electricity, water supply, telephone, internet, and other utilities and facilities consumed or used at the Leased Property throughout the term of this Contract. The Lessee shall pay such charges directly to the relevant service providers within the time specified in the respective invoices. Should the Lessee fail to pay such charges and the services be interrupted or terminated, the Lessee shall bear all costs of reconnection and all resulting damages.

Clause 9 Costs of the Contract and Stamp Duty

9.1 The costs of making this Contract shall be borne by both Parties equally.

9.2 Notwithstanding Clause 9.1, stamp duty on this Contract, being Seven Thousand Two Hundred Baht (7,200 THB) calculated upon the total rent of Seven Million Two Hundred Thousand Baht (7,200,000 THB) throughout the term of the lease, shall be borne by the Lessee.

9.3 The Lessor, as the party legally responsible for stamp duty under applicable law, shall pay the stamp duty to the competent authority within the time period required by law. The Lessee shall bear the cost of such stamp duty and shall reimburse the Lessor for the amount actually paid, provided that the Lessor presents reasonable evidence of such payment. Where the law allows or requires stamp duty to be paid in cash instead of affixing adhesive stamps, the Parties shall comply with the procedures prescribed by the Revenue Department.

Clause 10 Maintenance and Repairs of the Leased Property

10.1 The Lessee shall take as much care of the Leased Property and all furniture and equipment therein as a person of ordinary prudence would take of his own property, and shall be responsible for the ordinary maintenance and petty repairs thereof throughout the term of this Contract.

10.2 The Lessor shall be responsible for all repairs which may become necessary during the term of this Contract, except those which are by law or custom to be done by the Lessee. Should any such repair become necessary, the Lessee shall notify the Lessor in writing to carry it out, and should the Lessor fail to do so within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice, the Lessee may terminate this Contract, provided that the defect is serious enough to justify this course.

10.3 The Lessor shall reimburse the Lessee for any necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by the Lessee for the preservation of the Leased Property, except expenses for ordinary maintenance and petty repairs.

10.4 If the Leased Property requires urgent repairs during the term of this Contract and the Lessor desires to carry out such repairs, the Lessee shall not refuse permission, notwithstanding that it may cause inconvenience to the Lessee. Should such repairs take an unreasonable length of time and thereby render the Leased Property unsuitable for the purpose of this Contract, the Lessee may terminate this Contract.

10.5 Any damage to the Leased Property caused by the wilful act, negligence, or breach of this Contract by the Lessee, his employees, agents, invitees, sub-lessees, or any other person under the responsibility of the Lessee, shall be repaired by the Lessee at his own expense and to the reasonable satisfaction of the Lessor.

Clause 11 Alteration of the Leased Property

11.1 The Lessee shall not alter, modify, add to, or demolish any part of the Leased Property, whether structural or non-structural, without the prior written consent of the Lessor.

11.2 Upon the expiration or termination of this Contract, the Lessor shall have the option, to be exercised by written notice given to the Lessee not less than thirty (30) days before the date on which the Leased Property is to be delivered up, either:

(a) to retain any alteration or addition made by the Lessee, in which case the same shall become the property of the Lessor without any obligation on the Lessor to pay compensation therefor; or

(b) to require the Lessee, at his own expense, to remove such alteration or addition and to restore the Leased Property to its former condition.

11.3 Where the Lessee has made any alteration or addition without the prior written consent of the Lessor, the Lessee shall, upon request of the Lessor, restore the Leased Property to its former condition at his own expense, and shall be liable to the Lessor for any loss or damage resulting from such alteration or addition.

Clause 12 Inspection of the Leased Property

12.1 The Lessee shall allow the Lessor or his authorised representative to inspect the Leased Property at reasonable times and intervals.

12.2 For the purposes of Clause 12.1, the Lessor or his authorised representative may enter and inspect the Leased Property during business hours upon giving the Lessee prior notice of not less than twenty-four (24) hours.

12.3 In case of emergency, or where the Leased Property is or is likely to be materially damaged, the Lessor or his authorised representative may enter the Leased Property without prior notice for the purpose of preventing or mitigating damage.

12.4 During the last three (3) months of the term of this Contract, the Lessor shall have the right to bring prospective lessees or purchasers to inspect the Leased Property, upon giving the Lessee reasonable prior notice.

Clause 13 Notification by the Lessee

The Lessee shall forthwith inform the Lessor, unless the Lessor already has knowledge thereof, in any of the following cases:

(a) if the Leased Property is in need of repairs by the Lessor;

(b) if a preventive measure is required for avoiding a danger; or

(c) if a third person encroaches on the Leased Property or claims a right over it.

Should the Lessee fail to comply with this Clause, the Lessee shall be liable to the Lessor for any injury resulting from the delay occasioned by such failure.

Clause 14 Sub-lease and Assignment

14.1 The Lessee shall not sub-let the Leased Property, in whole or in part, nor assign or transfer any right or obligation under this Contract to any third party, without the prior written consent of the Lessor.

14.2 Where the Lessor has consented to a sub-lease, the sub-lessee shall be directly liable to the Lessor, and such consent shall not prejudice any right of the Lessor against the Lessee.

14.3 Any sub-lease, assignment, or transfer made in breach of this Clause shall entitle the Lessor to terminate this Contract forthwith, without prejudice to any right to claim damages.

Clause 15 Loss of or Damage to the Leased Property

15.1 If the whole of the Leased Property is lost or destroyed, whether by fire, flood, earthquake, war, riot, or any other cause beyond the control of the Parties and without the fault of either Party, this Contract shall be extinguished, and neither Party shall have any claim for damages against the other, save for amounts already accrued and payable prior to such extinction. The Lessor shall refund the Security Deposit to the Lessee after deducting any such amounts.

15.2 If part only of the Leased Property is lost or destroyed without the fault of the Lessee, the Lessee may claim a reduction of the rent in proportion to the part lost. If the Lessee cannot, with the remaining part, accomplish the purpose for which he entered into this Contract, the Lessee may terminate this Contract.

Clause 16 Transfer of Ownership of the Leased Property

This Contract shall not be extinguished by any transfer of ownership of the Leased Property. The transferee shall be entitled to the rights and shall be subject to the duties of the Lessor towards the Lessee under this Contract. The Lessor shall give the Lessee written notice of any such transfer without delay.

Clause 17 Death of a Party

17.1 The Parties agree that the right of the Lessee under this Contract is a personal right granted having regard to the qualifications of the Lessee. This Contract shall accordingly be terminated upon the death of the Lessee, unless the heirs of the Lessee and the Lessor mutually agree in writing to continue this Contract on the same terms and conditions.

17.2 The death of the Lessor shall not extinguish this Contract. The heirs of the Lessor shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the duties of the Lessor under this Contract.

Clause 18 Termination of the Contract

18.1 This Contract shall terminate upon the expiration of the term stated in Clause 3.1.

18.2 The Lessor shall have the right to terminate this Contract by written notice to the Lessee upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(a) the Lessee fails to pay the rent within the time specified in Clause 5.2, and such default remains uncured after the Lessor has notified the Lessee in writing to make payment within a period of not less than fifteen (15) days;

(b) the Lessee uses the Leased Property contrary to Clause 2, or fails to take care of the Leased Property as required by Clause 10.1, and fails to comply after notice from the Lessor;

(c) the Lessee sub-lets, assigns, or transfers this Contract or the Leased Property in breach of Clause 14;

(d) the Lessee alters the Leased Property in breach of Clause 11.1;

(e) the Lessee fails to replenish the Security Deposit as required by Clause 6.3;

(f) the Lessee becomes insolvent, is subject to a receiving order, or is adjudged bankrupt by the court; or

(g) the Lessee commits any other material breach of this Contract and fails to remedy such breach within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Lessor.

18.3 The Lessee shall have the right to terminate this Contract in the cases provided in Clauses 4.3, 10.2, 10.4 and 15.2, where the Lessor commits any other material breach of this Contract and fails to remedy such breach within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Lessee, and in any other case provided by law.

18.4 Save as provided in this Contract or by law, neither Party shall terminate this Contract before the expiration of the term stated in Clause 3.1, except by written agreement of both Parties. Where the Lessor consents in writing to an early termination requested by the Lessee, the Lessor shall be entitled to retain out of the Security Deposit an amount equal to the actual damage sustained by him, and shall refund the balance to the Lessee.

18.5 Upon termination of this Contract for any reason, the Lessee shall settle all outstanding rent, utility charges, taxes, and other amounts due under this Contract. The Lessor shall be entitled to deduct from the Security Deposit any amount owed by the Lessee, and to claim additional damages if the Security Deposit is insufficient.

Clause 19 Return of the Leased Property

Upon the expiration or termination of this Contract, the Lessee shall deliver up the Leased Property, together with all property listed in the Appendix, to the Lessor in the same condition as received, save for reasonable wear and tear arising from ordinary use. The Parties shall jointly inspect the Leased Property on the date of delivery and record the result of such inspection in writing signed by both Parties.

Clause 20 Encumbrances

The Lessee shall not create or permit any mortgage, pledge, lien, or other encumbrance over the Leased Property or over any right of the Lessee under this Contract, nor use the same as security for the performance of any obligation owed by the Lessee to any person, nor permit any third party to acquire any right of possession over the Leased Property.

Clause 21 Notices

Any notice, request, or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Contract shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly given if delivered personally or sent by registered mail with acknowledgement of receipt to the address of the receiving Party set forth at the beginning of this Contract, or to such other address as that Party may subsequently designate by written notice to the other Party. Notice sent by registered mail shall be deemed received on the third (3rd) day after the date of posting, whether or not actually received, and shall likewise be deemed duly given where the addressee refuses acceptance or the item is returned undelivered. If either Party changes its address, it shall notify the other Party in writing within seven (7) days of such change. Absent such notification, any notice sent to the address set forth herein shall be deemed duly given.

Clause 22 Severability

Should any provision of this Contract be held invalid, void, or unenforceable, in whole or in part, for any reason whatsoever, such provision shall be severed from this Contract, and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect and shall remain binding upon the Parties.

Clause 23 Entire Agreement and Amendment

This Contract, together with the Appendix attached hereto, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, or agreements, whether oral or written. No amendment or modification of this Contract shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by both Parties, and any such written amendment shall form part of this Contract.

Clause 24 Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

This Contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Kingdom of Thailand. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Contract shall be settled amicably by the Parties. Failing amicable settlement, such dispute shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Civil Court having jurisdiction over the locality in which the Leased Property is situated.
